Happenings Over the City and News From the Country Roundabout.

Moody Day Come Here.

Yesterday afternoon a meeting was held in the Presbyterian church at which time action was taken in reference to inviting Dwight L. Moody, the great evangelist, to hold meetings in Salem. Communications were read from Mr. Moody in which he said he would not go to San Francisco until early in January and could perhaps make Salem a visit. He is now in Portland holding meetings, and a committee of three, was appointed to meet him there this evening and press the invitation.

A central committee was appointed, consisting of one from each church, and is as follows: Presbyterian, W. N. Ladue; M. E., W. H. Odell; Christian, G. W. Johnson; Congregational, T. McF. Patton. The other churches had no representation, but committee-men will be appointed from their number soon.

While there is no assurance that Mr. Moody will visit Salem, yet it is confidently expected—from his communications—that he will spend ten days or two weeks here soon. Should he come three daily meetings will be held.

An Educational Center.

At Salem the disposition to make advanced educational provisions is marked. Besides the public school buildings there is the Willamette University, the oldest educational institution upon the northwest coast. Its present building is a large brick surrounded by fine grounds studded with shade trees, making it one of the most conspicuous objects in the city. Not far from the city, along the line of railroad to Portland, there is the Chemawa Indian School, which is constantly attended by a large number of Indian boys and girls. Two miles north of Salem are the grounds of the Oregon State Agriculture Society, where annually the State Fair is held, attracting large crowds and contributing much to the enterprise and interest of Salem.—Ohio Exchange.

A Full Prison.

The penitentiary is rapidly filling up. During last week there were nine arrivals, which places the total number at 281. This is the largest number of convicts this institution has entertained under Mr. Downing's superintendency. The highest number it ever held was 298, several years ago. Circuit courts are in session throughout the different counties and no doubt before spring the roll will contain the names of 300. On Thanksgiving day Warden McKinnon treated the boys to a smoke and it is surprising that of this great number there was but one who did not use the weed. Nearly as large a number are chewers of tobacco.

The Debt Raised.

For several years a debt of $700 has been hanging over the Congregational church in this city. A welcome piece of news is that which says the debt has been lifted. Since Rev. A. B. Brown accepted the pastorate of this church he has been laboring to reduce this obligation, and has in the four months succeeded in raising the entire sum and the church is now free of encumbrance.

Serene at Chemawa.

The investigation of the books and affairs of Col. Lee, superintendent of the Indian school, continues at Chemawa. Nothing of a startling nature has been unearthed. An old employ has been reinstated, but farther than this there is no report as yet.

Three Plain Drunks.

Recorder Strickler this morning dealt justice to three Saturday night plain drunks. They were as follows: Harry Dunn two days, Wm. Snyder four days and Wm. Pettijohn $7.50; which he paid and went on his way rejoicing.

Guilt of Manslaughter.

Blye, the Walla Walla murderer who has paid frequent visits to Salem, was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to a term of twenty years in the penitentiary.

More Scarlet Fever.

At Eugene several new cases of scarlet fever have been developed within the last few days, among which are the children of Judge R. S. Bean.

THE NEW STEAMER WRECKED.

The Oregon Pacific's New "Yaquina City" Goes to Pieces.

Parties who came in from Albany at noon report that the Oregon Pacific's new steamer "Yaquina City" was wrecked at the entrance to the bay.

Yesterday evening she arrived on her first trip from San Francisco, and in attempting to cross the bar went to pieces at nearly the same place as did the old "Yaquina City" last winter.

The vessel is reported a total wreck having broken in a terrible and unexpected manner.

The Yaquina City was to ply between Yaquina and San Francisco alternately with the steamship Willamette Valley, thus giving service about every five days between San Francisco and Yaquina bay. The Yaquina City left Baltimore October 6 with 1300 tons of coal, 700 of which she used on the voyage, discharging the remainder at San Francisco.

The steamship is not a new vessel, having been built in 1881 at Philadelphia. She is a screw steamer, with half-bulk rigging, which double source of power enabled her to make the passage in sixty-two days, a very good record. She is a double decker, made of iron, 237 feet in length, 34 in width, 21.2 in depth and has a registered tonnage of 1200. She has compound engines and four bulkheads. She has been plying between New York and Liverpool up to the time of her purchase by the Oregon Pacific people, who rechristened her from her original name, "Carnegie." She was to have been used for both freight and passenger traffic.

The Oregon Pacific officials are very reticent about the wreck of their new vessel and it is impossible to get from them any information. It is stated upon reliable authority that the vessel will be a total loss.

The Quintette Club.

The Salem lovers of good music had a feast Saturday night when the Boston Quintette Club gave one of their performances here. The performance was classic. The music was classic. The execution was perfect. This company handle "way up" productions in a manner calculated to inspire the listener and discourage the fiddler. They are violinists in the true sense. But after all an entire evening of such grand fiddling as this grows monotonous. They are fine, nevertheless.

William Kapus, Robert McLean and C. W. Fulton, presidential electors for Oregon, met in Portland a few days ago for the purpose of selecting one of their number to convey Oregon's vote to Washington, where the presidential electors of the states will meet on the second Monday of next January, at 12 o'clock, noon, to cast their vote for president and vice-president. Hon. C. W. Fulton was chosen as the one to bear the ballot to the east.

Where Insure?

ED. CAPITAL JOURNAL: I was at church yesterday—the M. E. church—and heard Rev. M. Rollins on the subject of "Should Christians insure their lives?" I agree with the Reverend gentleman, and will assure him and all others, that the A. O. U. W. society is the best and cheapest insurance organization in the land. All good Christians should be members of that order. A MEMBER.

A World Beater.

Anson Kimsey, of Dixie, this season raised a beet measuring twenty-two inches in circumference and tipping the beam at twenty-five pounds, and if his ground should try real hard it could do even better than that.

Delicate women who complain of a tired feeling, pains in the back and joints, desire to sleep, dizziness, painful or suppressed menstruation, will find in Oregon Kidney Tea a faithful friend. It can be relied upon in every instance to give immediate relief from kidney and urinary troubles. Thousands of women suffering every day from some disorder of the kidneys or liver, who might be permanently cured by using Oregon Kidney Tea.

Safety Over the Sea.

Yesterday John Booth received a letter from his son John who left Portland for England last May. It notes his safe arrival in Gloucester after a pleasant, though uneventful voyage.

Oysters! Oysters!

Served in every style at Pearce & May's restaurant, on Commercial street. Give them a call and replenish the inner man.

A good digestion waits on appetite and a good appetite is one of the surest signs of health. If you are low spirited, irritable, bilious, or have an irregular appetite, then we advise you by all means to take Dr. Henley's Bile Beans. It will make a new man of you.

—Catch the shadow, ere the substance fades, is good advice, and especially is the truth of this demonstrated when you speak of the frequency with which one dear friend or another is hurried away. You'll regret too late that you did not have your friend or relative visit Sperry the Artist and have a perfect likeness taken. Heed the moral—go now before it is forever too late. 1 f.

—Watch the footprints on the sidewalk. Where do they go? Up and down Commercial street until they come to the new bank block. Then they go up stairs. They go to Cherrington's—The Artist. If you are looking for something nice for the holidays, go and see him. His work is the finest. Time is fleeting and Christmas is near. Be sure and give him time to finish your work up nicely. 1 f.

I haven't the courage to die sir. Hardly the courage to live; Can't drink enough to forget, sir. Ain't Christian enough to forgive. This was the wail of a man who had endured the tortures of "liver complaint" and dyspepsia for years; and he might have endured them for life, had he not heard that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery would make him a well man. He gave it a trial and was cured. Once he was hollow eyed, emaciated, and slowly tottering toward the tomb; but now he is vigorous, robust and healthy. There is nothing that can compare with the "Discovery" as a curative agent for sour stomach, constipation, impure blood and biliousness.

The worst cases of nasal catarrh positively and permanently cured by Dr. Sage's Catarrh remedy.

LANDS AND HOMES.

Marion county is situated in the heart of the magnificent Willamette valley, the central gem in the cluster of rich counties that form that princely domain, and is the banner commonwealth of the great northwest in all the essentials that go towards making it a profitable abiding place, and a home for the thrifty farmer, the cunning artisan and the industrious mechanic.

Rich in its agricultural resources, in its cultivated and uncultivated lands, in its water powers, and minerals; rich in its colleges and schools of learning, and with a climate unsurpassed for its salubrity, it presents to the immigrant from the overcrowded states, where cold winters and hot summers, with terrible cyclones, prevail, who comes to the coast with some means, advantages that no other county in Oregon possesses.

Much has been written of this western country that requires a stretch of the imagination to comprehend, and numerous complaints are heard from the class who have been misled by them, so in this brief sketch the writer desires to avoid exaggeration as to its present and prospective advantages, asking those in the east into whose hands this may fall—particularly those who have their eyes directed towards this coast—to peruse it carefully, feeling that it is not written to lure immigrants within its borders, but only as a truthful description of a land which, if it does not "flow milk and honey," contains within its bosom wealth and resources equal to any other country on the Pacific side of the Rocky mountains.

BOUNDARIES. Marion county is bounded on the north by the Willamette river and Butte creek, which separates it from Clackamas county; on the east by Clackamas county and the Cascade mountains, which separate it from Wasco county; on the south by the Santiam river and the north fork of the Santiam, separating it from Linn county and on the west by the Willamette river.

PHYSICAL FORMATION. The county contains, including valley, prairie and mountain lands, about 900,000 acres.

There are two main divisions, the mountain and the valley. The latter extends from the Willamette river to the foot of the Cascade mountains, a distance of about fifteen miles.

The mountainous portion contains some fourteen townships of mostly unsurveyed land; lying in a strip twelve miles north and south by forty miles east and west, and comprises all classes of land, from rich narrow valleys in the passes, up through all the grades of rolling, hilly and broken, to that of rugged canyons and inaccessible craggy peaks. It is generally heavily timbered, and in the near future will be valuable for its lumber supplies. These hills and mountains afford a wonderful summer range for stock, and many of the more enterprising farmers are availing themselves of this opportunity, and when the cold frosts of autumn approach, the stock are brought out to fresh pastures, thus enabling them to survive the winter storms with little care.

GREAT ADVANTAGES. A decided advantage Marion county has over many others is the diversified farming interest that can be carried on throughout the entire year; notwithstanding this is a wet climate during the winter months the uplands are seldom so wet to work, and long before the prairie farmers are through with their seedling, the hill farmer is preparing for his summer work. And yet the low lands are much preferred by many; the yield per acre is generally greater, and perhaps less labor is required to place the soil in proper condition for crops; and then should the season prove dry, the bottom lands are sure to bring the best crops. No better farming land can be found in the United States than that on the noted Howell prairie, French prairie, Santiam prairie and Salem prairie. The soil of these are wonderfully productive. With good cultivation, forty bushels of wheat and sixty of oats per acre can be readily secured.

FACILITIES FOR MARKET. The Willamette river, with two lines of railroad running the entire length of the county from north to south, with the Oregon Pacific road crossing the southeast corner of the county, affords ample facilities to reach a market in any direction.

SALEM. Is the capital of the state and county seat of Marion county, situated on the Willamette river—and on the O. & C. railroad. Costly buildings have been erected, among which the state capital building, county court house, Chemekete hotel, opera house, new public school building, Catholic school building, Methodist church, Willamette University, and many private residences and business blocks, which will compare favorably with older and larger cities.

GENERAL. All things considered, the Willamette valley has the best country in the world, and Marion county is about centrally located therein. To those seeking homes in the west, no better opportunities can be offered, than are found here. Persons desiring information regarding Marion county or the Willamette valley, those wanting farming lands, stock farms, business property or city residences, will be promptly and reliably informed by addressing the well known firm of Willis & Chamberlin, real estate agents, western block, Salem Oregon.

Remember that there is no charge for stamping at Bridges & Bozorth's when the material is purchased of them.
